FCC Tx ID : AB6NT1900MFRM3

Dear Sir/Madam

This letter is to follow up with the email request that I sent to ATCB about removing the users manual document for FCC Tx ID AB6NT1900MFRM3 not to be accessible publicly in fcc.gov website.

I acknowledge that this document was viewable to the public from the date of the grant of this filing in June until Sept 13, 2007.

The email request I have sent to ATCB is attached below:

From: Thomas Wong mailto:[thomaswg@nortel.com]

My co-workers have informed me that a confidential document being listed in the FCC site under AB6NT1900MFRM3.

The document that listed in the site is the users manual that I have filed to you as confidential document. This is the way I have always filed and the users manuals have not been listed in the site.

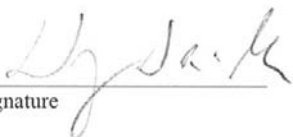

The users manual contains some sensitive information that only our customers could know. As you know, we are selling basestation to very selective customers (not to general public) and we don't want the sensitive information to be listed in a public domain site.

Thanks for your understanding.

Regards,

Thomas Wong

Sincerely,
