INTERTEK TESTING SERVICES - Menlo Park

Golf Range Finder, Model: GDM-10A

Date of Test: March 16-24, 1998

Appendix E - Theory of Operation & Tune-Up Procedure

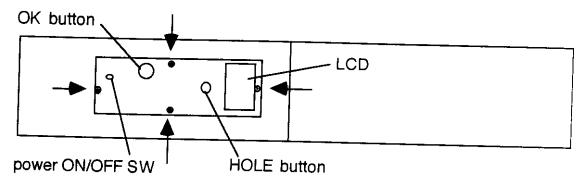

See attached.

3. Tune up procedure of transmitter

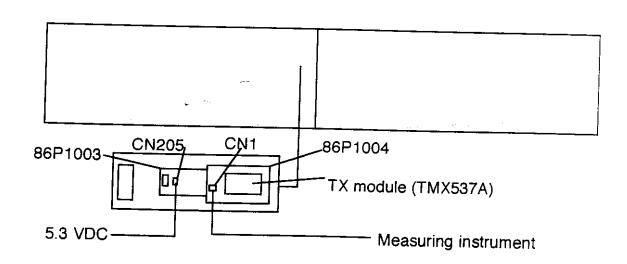

3.1 Test instrument set up

Interconnection;

- 1) Open the Mother unit by the key .
- 2) Undo four screws by the special driver.

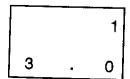

- 3) Disconnect the antenna cable from CN1 on 86P1004.
- 4) Connect the BNC connector assembly to the CN1.
- 5) Connect the end of the BNC connector to the measuring instrument.
- 6) Install the supplied battery into the mother unit or disconnect CN205 on 86P1003 and connect 5.3 VDC power supply to the CN205 (#1:+, #2:-).

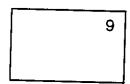

How to start transmission from CN1;

1) Turn the Mother unit to ON while pressing both of HOLE and OK button. The following picture appear on the LCD.

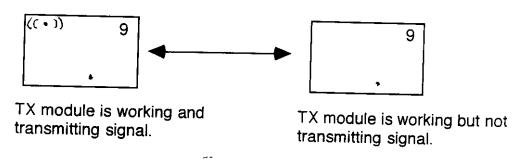

2) Press the HOLE button 8 times so that the "9" appears as shown below.

3) Press the OK button 3 times so that the "(4) appears as follows:

NOTE:

If the OK button is pressed more times, picture changes as follows:

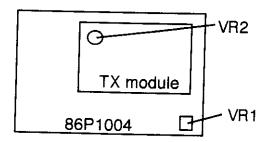

When power is turned OFF, TX module is turned OFF.

3.2 TX power/ frequency modulation adjustment

Referring to 3.1, set unit to start transmission.

TX power adjustment;

This can be done by VR2 in TX module

Frequency modulation adjustment:;

This can be done by VR1(R15) on 86P1004.