

Label Location WW030588

the rear side of the equipment

These nameplate labels are tested and assured not remove in the life of the product.

The compliance statements of FCC part 15 are placed in the instruction manual sold with this device because this device is small and not capable of providing the information electronically.

The required statement of digital devices the Section 15.105 is provided in the instruction manual instead of the Section 15.19(a) statement.