LETTER OF SIMILARITY

Ref: Declaration of Similarity between Regulatory Models PBVOY72 and PBVOY52

To Whom It May Concern,

We, HP Inc., as the manufacturer located at 1501 Page Mill Road, Palo Alto, CA 94304, USA, hereby issue this letter to declare the similarity between our two products, with Regulatory model names: PBVOY72 and PBVOY52.

Both models are equipped with the same PCBA assembly with identical electrical and radio circuitry, and input/output ports. The primary distinction between the two is the external mechanics of the charging cradles, tailored to accommodate different headset types and form factors. Specifically, PBVOY72 charging cradle is designed to support the Poly Voyager over-the-head headsets, including the Voyager Focus 2 and Voyager 4300 series. Conversely, PBVOY52 is compatible with our over-the-ear headsets, such as the Voyager 5200 series.

This declaration is intended to assist in addressing any regulatory or compliance questions clarification regarding the relationship and similarities between these two models. Should you require further details, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Ismael Talancon', written over a horizontal line.
