Dear Lucy:

About AN07T7161 question, bleow is our answers:

Ans 1.We add RF exposure information to User's manual and uploaded to the CCS website.

Ans.2. Following is our customer response:

T12FG is not related with RF characteristics. In other words, T12FG is just only for power source for TM14.
R608FS and R6014FS both are receivers

Thank you!!

Best regards,

Tina Huang

>> Hi Mr. Liu,

>>

>> Please address following issues.

>> Q#1: User manual shall include Part 15.21 and Part 15.105 user >> information and RF exposure information per Part 2.1091. Please be >> noted that this device has to be classified as handheld operating >> only that 20cm distance from user shall be maintained. Please address.

>> Q#2: According to the user manual, TM14-2.4G can plug into another >> transmitter of T12FG. Please explain what T12FG refers to as well as >> the other two transmitters of R6014FS/R608FS.

>> Please be noted that each of them may be required to apply a separate

>> FCC ID as a transmitter concerned.
