

IR26A Operational Description-310 MHz transmitter:

The IR26A is a universal remote control which contains a 310 MHz radio frequency pulsed transmitter. The transmitter is used to operate common features of most brands of infrared controlled devices.

The Radio Frequency Pulse Coded message is activated when the user depresses any of the buttons. When the command is activated, the 310 MHz transmitter sends the appropriate commands to the receiving equipment.