

Operational Description

The UR47A is a 310 MHz transmitter used for remote control purposes. It is manually operated and ceases operation within 5 seconds after activation. It does not perform periodic transmissions.