To whom it may concern,

According to KDB 726920 D01, the user's manual and internal photos of the radio module (RMN: SNPRC-2150 and FCC ID: B94SNPRC2150) exhibit may be given Long-term Confidentiality under the following special conditions:

- b) User's manual and internal photos of the radio module may be held confidential only when the manual contains proprietary technical information intended for professional technicians obligated under a NDA. All sales and distribution of the user's manual must be under a NDA that restricts the disclosure of the information.

- c) In the application cover letter requesting Long-Term Confidentiality the following additional description (in item 7) and the NDA exhibit is required:
 - 1. Describe in detail how internal photos and/or user's manual information are controlled to prevent them from becoming public or disclosed to unauthorized persons.
 - 2. Describe how public access is restricted for products serviceable by professional designated technicians.
 - 3. A statement that all sales of the non-consumer device will be under a NDA to include third party sales and that the final user of the device is subject to the NDA.
 - 4. Provide an example of the NDA between the grantee and a purchaser. The request for confidentiality must include the key terms of the NDA to ensure consistency between the two.

Response

- 1. This module is HP Inc. proprietary and will not be used or sold anywhere else. Confidentiality of the User Manual is maintained by requiring that any party that is supplied a user manual must first sign a non-disclosure agreement.
- 2. The module will only be installed and/or repaired in the HP Inc.'s factory and it does not open to the public.
- 3. The module is not subject to third part sales. The final user of the module is always the HP Inc.
- 4. A sample copy of the HP Inc. NDA requiring that any party that is supplied with a user manual must first sign a non-disclosure agreement attached.

Sincerely yours,
