

ARISTOCRAFT
MODEL: ART-5480
PROJECT: 3262

A black and white photograph of a handheld electronic device, likely a surveying or mapping instrument. The device has a light-colored, rectangular body with a vertical orientation. A long, thin, black antenna extends from the top of the device. A small, white, rectangular label is attached to the antenna, displaying the text "ARISTOCRAFT", "MODEL: ART-5480", and "PROJECT: 3262". The device is set against a dark, textured background.
