Applicant's declaration concerning the differences between GN6110 & GN6210.

Differences between GN6210 & GN6110

The headsets are different.

The top plastic parts for the headset docking are different.

The top PCB are the same but with different connector for charging contact with headset.

The lower part with PCB and plastic housing are the same for both variants except for the USB connector which has been removed from GN6210.
