Turn on and set up your new iPad over a Wi-Fi network. You can also set up iPad by connecting it to your computer and using iTunes. If you have another iOS device (with iOS 11 or later) or an Android device, you can copy your data to your new device.

Note: If your iPad is deployed or managed by a company, school, or other organization, see an administrator or teacher for setup instructions. For general information, go to the Apple at Work website or Education website.

Prepare for setup

To make setup as smooth as possible, have the following items available:

- An Internet connection through a Wi-Fi network (you may need the name and password of the network) or cellular data service through a carrier (Wi-Fi + Cellular models)
  - Your Apple ID and password; if you don't have an Apple ID, you can create one during setup
  - Your credit or debit card account information, if you want to add a card to Apple Pay during setup on supported models

Set up cellular service on iPad (Wi-Fi + Cellular models)

If you have a Wi-Fi + Cellular model, you can sign up for a cellular data plan. This helps you stay connected when you're away from a Wi-Fi network.

You can set up a cellular data plan with the following:

- eSIM
  - Embedded Apple SIM or Apple SIM card
  - Third-party nano-SIM (from a cellular provider)

Set up cellular service with eSIM

On models that support eSIM, you can activate the cellular service from your iPad. You may also be able to travel abroad with iPad and sign up for cellular service with a carrier in the country you're visiting. This isn't available in all regions, and not all carriers are supported.

1. Go to Settings  > Cellular Data.
2. Tap Add a New Plan.
3. Do one of the following:
  - If you don't have a QR code provided by your carrier, select a carrier, then follow the onscreen instructions.
  - If you have a QR code provided by your carrier, tap Other. Position iPad so that the QR code provided by your carrier appears in the frame, or enter the details manually. You may be asked to enter a confirmation code provided by your carrier.

Alternatively, you can activate your cellular plan through your carrier's app (if supported). Go to the App Store, download your carrier's app, then use the app to purchase a cellular plan.

You can store more than one eSIM on your iPad, but you can use only one eSIM at a time. To switch eSIMs, go to Settings > Cellular Data, then tap the plan you want to use (below Cellular Plans).

Set up cellular service with an embedded Apple SIM or Apple SIM card

On models with an embedded Apple SIM or Apple SIM card, you can activate the cellular service from your iPad. Depending on your home carrier and your destination, you may also be able to travel abroad with iPad and sign up for cellular service with a carrier in the country you're visiting. This isn't available in all regions, and not all carriers are supported.

1. Go to Settings  > Cellular Data.
2. Tap Add a New Plan, then follow the onscreen instructions. You can choose a carrier and a plan, or you can add your iPad to an existing plan.

If you're traveling in another country and you want to use a local carrier instead of roaming, go to Settings > Cellular Data > Add a New Plan, then select a plan.

See the Apple Support article Use Apple SIM with Wi-Fi + Cellular models of iPad, or contact your carrier.

Install a nano-SIM

You can install an Apple SIM card or a nano-SIM provided by a carrier.

1. Insert a paper clip or SIM eject tool (not included) into the small hole of the SIM tray, then push in toward iPad to eject the tray.

Note: The shape and orientation of the SIM tray depend on the iPad model and your region.

2. Remove the tray from iPad.
3. Place the nano-SIM in the tray. The angled corner determines the correct orientation.

4. Insert the tray back into iPad.
5. If you previously set up a PIN on the nano-SIM, carefully enter the PIN when prompted.

WARNING: Never try to guess a SIM PIN. An incorrect guess can permanently lock your SIM, and you won't be able to use cellular data through your carrier until you get a new SIM. See the Apple Support article Use a SIM PIN for your iPhone or iPad.

Cellular data requires a wireless data plan. If you're using a third-party nano-SIM, contact your carrier to set up service.

Manage your cellular data service

1. Go to Settings  > Cellular Data.
2. Do any of the following:
  - Restrict all data to Wi-Fi: Turn off Cellular Data.
  - Turn on or off LTE and roaming: Tap Cellular Data Options.
  - Turn on Personal Hotspot: Tap Set Up Personal Hotspot (available from certain carriers), then follow the onscreen instructions.
  - Manage your cellular account: Tap Manage [account name] or Carrier Services.

For information about managing your cellular data usage, see View or change cellular settings on iPad.

Important: When using cellular services through GSM networks, you need an eSIM, embedded Apple SIM, Apple SIM card, or third-party nano-SIM. When using cellular services through CDMA networks, you need an embedded Apple SIM, Apple SIM card, or third-party nano-SIM. Your iPad is subject to your wireless service provider's policies, which may include restrictions on switching service providers and roaming, even after the conclusion of any required minimum service contract. Contact your wireless service provider for more details. The availability of cellular capabilities depends on the wireless network, your iPad model, and your location.

Connect iPad to the Internet <sup>Draft</sup>

Connect your iPad to the Internet by using an available Wi-Fi network. Wi-Fi + Cellular models can also connect to the Internet by using a cellular network.

If  appears at the top of the screen, iPad is connected to a Wi-Fi network. (To verify this, open Safari to view a webpage.) iPad reconnects when you return to the same location.

Connect iPad to a cellular network (Wi-Fi + Cellular models)

Your iPad automatically connects to your carrier's cellular data network if a Wi-Fi network isn't available. If iPad doesn't connect, check the following:

1. Verify that your SIM is activated and unlocked. See Set up cellular service on iPad \(Wi-Fi + Cellular models\).
  2. Go to Settings  > Cellular Data.
  3. Verify that Cellular Data is turned on.

When you need an Internet connection, iPad does the following, in order, until the connection is made:

- Tries to connect to the most recently used available Wi-Fi network
- Shows a list of Wi-Fi networks in range and connects to the one you choose
- Connects to your carrier's cellular data network (Wi-Fi + Cellular models)

Note: If a Wi-Fi connection to the Internet isn't available, apps and services may transfer data over your carrier's cellular network, which may result in additional fees. Contact your carrier for information about your cellular data plan rates. To manage cellular data usage, see View or change cellular settings on iPad.

Manage Apple ID and iCloud settings on iPad Draft

Your Apple ID is the account you use for just about everything you do with Apple—including storing your content in iCloud, streaming from Apple Music, and buying content from the iTunes Store, the App Store, and Apple Books. On your iPad, you can sign in to all Apple services with a single Apple ID and password. It's best to have only one Apple ID.

Use iCloud to securely store your photos, videos, documents, music, apps, and more—and keep them updated across all your devices. With iCloud, you can easily share photos, calendars, locations, and more with friends and family. You can even use iCloud to help you find your iPad if you lose it.

iCloud provides you with a free email account and 5 GB of storage for your mail, documents, photos and videos, and backups. Your purchased music, apps, TV shows, and books don't count against your available storage space. You can upgrade your iCloud storage right from iPad.

Charge and monitor the iPad battery

iPad has an internal, lithium-ion rechargeable battery. Lithium-ion technology currently provides the best performance for your device. Compared with traditional battery technology, lithium-ion batteries are lighter, charge faster, last longer, and have a higher power density for more battery life. To understand how your battery works so you can get the most out of it, see the website Apple Lithium-ion Batteries.

WARNING: For important safety information about the battery and charging iPad, see Important safety information for iPad.

Invite others to open files in iCloud Drive on iPad Draft

When you use iCloud Drive in the Files app , you can invite others to view or edit a file by sending them a link.

Files shared in iCloud Drive have these important characteristics:

- The links to shared files include their filenames; if the name or content of the file is confidential, be sure to ask recipients not to forward the link to anyone else.
- If you move shared files to other folders or locations, links to them no longer work and people lose access to the files.
- When shared files are editable, everyone's changes are updated automatically.

For information about setting up iCloud Drive, see Use iCloud Drive on iPad. For information about viewing and organizing files in iCloud Drive, see View files and folders in Files on iPad and Organize files in folders on iPad.

Use Find My iPhone to locate your device

The Find My iPhone app  helps you locate and protect your lost or stolen iPhone, iPad, iPod touch, Apple Watch, AirPods, or Mac. If you lose your device, use the Find My iPhone app on another device, or use the Find My iPhone web app on any Mac or PC, to locate your device on a map, lock it remotely, play a sound, display a message, or erase all its data. Find My iPhone includes a feature called Activation Lock that prevents anyone else from activating and using your device, even if it's completely erased.

Important: To use these features, you need to set up and turn on Find My [device] on each device before it's lost. Also, your device must be able to connect to the Internet. (Find My iPhone is automatically turned on for AirPods you're using with a device that has Find My [device] turned on.)

Set up Find My iPhone

When a device that supports Apple Pay is in Lost Mode, Find My iPhone immediately suspends your credit, debit, and student ID cards and disables Apple Pay, even if the device is offline. See Remove your cards from Apple Pay if your iPad is lost or stolen.

- Erase your missing device: Protect your privacy by erasing all the information and media on your missing device and restoring it to its original factory settings. Activation Lock prevents anyone else from activating and using your device, even after you erase it with Find My iPhone. On models that support Apple Pay, erasing iPad immediately suspends your credit, debit, and student ID cards and disables Apple Pay, even if the device is offline.

Ask Siri. Say something like: "Help me find my iPad" or "Play a sound on my iPod touch." Learn how to ask Siri.

Before you sell or give away your iPad, you should completely erase it in Settings , which removes Activation Lock. The next owner can then activate and use the device normally.

Home

A look at Home on iPad

The Home app  provides a secure way to control and automate HomeKit-enabled accessories, such as lights, locks, smart TVs, thermostats, window shades, smart plugs, and cameras. With Home, you can control any “Works with Apple HomeKit” accessory using iPad.

After you set up your home and its rooms, you can control accessories individually, or use scenes to control multiple accessories with one command. For example, you might create a scene called “going to bed” that turns off the lights around the house, dims the lights in the room “master bedroom” to 30 percent, then locks the front door and lowers the thermostat.

You can schedule scenes to run automatically at certain times, or when you activate a particular accessory (for example, when you unlock the front door). This also allows you, and others you invite, to securely control your home while you’re away. To control your home remotely, you must have an Apple TV (4th generation or later), HomePod, or iPad (with iOS 10.3 or later) that you leave at home.

Control lights, locks, and more with Home on iPad

The first time you open the Home app , the setup assistant helps you create a home, where you can add accessories and define rooms. If you already created a home using another HomeKit-enabled app, you'll skip this step.

Add an accessory to Home

Before you add an accessory such as a light or camera, be sure that it's connected to a power source, is turned on, and is using your Wi-Fi network.

1. Tap the Home tab, then tap .
2. Tap Add Accessory, then follow the onscreen instructions.

When you add an accessory, it's assigned to a default room, or a room you choose.

You may need to scan or enter an 8-digit HomeKit setup code found on the accessory itself (or its box or documentation). A supported smart TV will display a QR code for you to scan. You can assign the accessory to a room, and give it a name. You use this name when controlling the accessory with Siri.

Assign an accessory to a room

1. Tap Rooms, tap , then choose the room the accessory is currently assigned to.

If it's not already assigned, look in Default Room.

2. Touch and hold the accessory's button in the Home tab until the controls appear, then tap Settings.
3. Tap Room, then choose a room.

Control an accessory

Tap the Home tab, then tap the button for the accessory—a light, for example—to quickly turn the accessory on or off, or touch and hold the button until controls appear.

The available controls depend on the type of accessory it is. For example, with some lightbulbs, you can change colors. With your smart TV you can choose an input source. You can also control accessories using Use and customize Control Center on iPad.

Organize rooms into zones

2. Tap Room Settings, then tap a room.
3. Tap Zone, then tap an existing zone, or tap Create New to add the room to a new zone.

1. Tap the Home tab, tap , then tap Home Settings.

2. Tap Custom, enter a name for the scene (such as "Dinner Party" or "Watching TV"), then tap Add Accessories.

The first accessory you select determines the room the scene is assigned to. If you select your bedroom lamp, for example, the scene is assigned to your bedroom.

4. Set each accessory to the state you want it in when you run the scene.

For example, for the Reading scene, you could set the bedroom lights to 100 percent and the thermostat to 68 degrees.

Use scenes

Tap the Rooms tab, tap , choose the room the scene is assigned to, then do one of the following:

- Run a scene: Tap the scene.

Control your home using Siri on iPad

In addition to using the Home app , you can use Siri to control your accessories and scenes. Here are some of the things you can say to Siri, depending on your accessories, and what you named them:

To do so, you need a home hub, a device such as Apple TV (4th generation or later), a HomePod, or an iPad (with iOS 10.3 or later) that you leave at home. You must be signed in to iCloud using the same Apple ID on your home hub device and your iPad.

You can also set an automation to only occur after sunset, which is useful for turning on lights just when they're needed.

You might use this, for example, to run a scene when you unlock the front door.

You might use this, for example, to turn on lights in a stairway when motion is detected nearby.

When iPad is in your home, it will run your Home automations even when your iPhone or iPod touch isn't present. If you have an Apple TV and you're signed in using the same Apple ID as your iPad, it will be paired automatically and enabled for automation.

Allow others to control accessories in your home

In the Home app , you can invite other people to control your smart accessories. To invite others to control your accessories, you and the people you invite need to be signed in to iCloud and have iOS 11.2.5 or later. You also need to be at your home or have a home hub set up in your home.

iMessage is an Apple service that sends messages over Wi-Fi or cellular connections to other iOS devices (with iOS 5 or later) and Mac computers (with OS X 10.8 or later). These messages don't count against your messaging plan. Messages sent via iMessage can include photos, videos, and other info. You can see when other people are typing, and send read receipts to let them know when you've read their messages. For security, messages sent via iMessage are encrypted before they're sent.

iMessage texts appear in blue bubbles. See the Apple Support article Use Messages on your iPhone, iPad, or iPod touch.

Sign in to iMessage

Go to Settings  > Messages, then turn on iMessage.

News

Get started with News on iPad

The News app  collects all the stories you want to read, from your favorite sources, about the topics that interest you most. To personalize News, you can choose from a selection of publications (called channels) and topics such as Entertainment, Food, and Science. The Today feed collects the best stories from the channels and topics you follow.

The more you read, the better News understands your interests. Siri learns what's important to you and suggests stories you might like. You can also receive notifications about important stories from channels you follow.

Note: You need a Wi-Fi or cellular connection to use News. News is currently available in the U.S., Canada, the U.K., and Australia. In the U.S., U.K., and Australia, News offers content only in English. In Canada, News supports both English and Canadian French publications.
