Dear Mr. Czumak:

In accordance with your e-mail dated November 8, 1999, we wish to upload additional information for the subject application:

1. Worst Case Body-Worn SAR for Normal Use – We have conducted additional SAR Testing to clarify and determine appropriate distance needed for satisfying body-worn SAR compliance for the belt-clip. We have uploaded this data for your reference.
2. User's Manual Warning Statement for RF Exposure Compliance – We have added a “Warning Statement” to the first page of the User’s Manual, to specify conditions of use, for compliance with FCC RF Exposure Limits. We have uploaded a copy of this text.
3. Corrected Emission Designators – We uploaded a corrected Form 731. Also, we uploaded a corrected Technical Description (47CFR2.983).

If you have additional questions or require additional information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

R. Gruhlke
