Dear Sir:

We formally request confidentiality for the Operator Manual, Schematic Diagrams, Operational Description, Parts Lists and Tune-Up Information exhibits submitted with this application. These documents contain proprietary design specific information that is not released in the public domain. To publicly disclose this information would provide public disclosure of trade secrets and damage our competitive advantages.

Customers of this product are provided with a copy of these documents to guide them in the safe deployment, field service, and utilization of the transmitter.

Thank you in advance for your understanding and cooperation.

Sincerely,

James A. Yard, CEO
