Dear Mr. Kim,

Please address following issues.

Q#1: FCC ID can't exceed 18characters, please revise the label format and other related exhibits. Also, since this applicaiton is filed as PC peripheral that FCC DOC logo is not applied. Please remove. Besides, since this PC is also equipped a certified RF module inside that the label format shall include this RF module's ID.

Q#2: As indicated in the block diagram that the frequency is up to 1GHz that per 15.33(b)(1), 5th harmonic of the highest frequency shall be investigated. Please address.

Q#3: Since this PC has equipped a certified RF module that RF exposure statement shall be provided to user. Please provide an updated user manual to include the proper RF exposure statement.

Best Regards,

Lucy Tsai
