SUBJECT: Classification of Fisher-Price Product #71924, Remote Control Dashboard (345 MHz).

Dear Sirs,

This letter is to inform you that the Fisher-Price Remote Control Dashboard #71924 submitted for license is not considered to be a child's toy. Fisher-Price will market and sell product #71924 as an appliance to be operated by adults only. Specifically, the product fits well into the group of products described in 47 CFR 15.231 and its operation is similar to that of a garage door opener system.

If you have any questions concerning the regulatory classification of product 71924, please feel free to contact me at 716 687 3984.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Coughlin
Manager, Testing and Regulatory Affairs
