

1. The amended test report will be provided.
2. The information is in the amended test report for both requested test sections.
3. The first line of the statement I indicated in the original response does specifically mention “procedures” not just the ambient environmental conditions.
4. The corrected schematic will be provided.