

This remote control is designed to separately control your light brightness. The button will control the light ON/OFF. The red indicator on the transmitter will light when the button is pressed.