Dear Mr. Sanders and Mr. Pratt,

The JRC JHS-183 Class A AIS received USCG type approval when it was reviewed by TÜV SÜD BAPT last month. This was done under the US - European Commission (EC) Mutual Recognition Agreement (MRA). This agreement came into force in 2004 and I have attached our guidance on it if you're curious. The JHS-183's USCG approval number, 165.155/EC0168/BAPT-MED000029, should be on the certificates TÜV SÜD BAPT provided you and should be used on the unit's label.

I confirmed that the JHS-183 is listed on the MarED database and that the USCG type approval is also indicated (copy attached).

If you have any questions, please call or write.

Best regards,

Ray
