

MODEL : TD1G049

This device is installed in the vehicle. Therefore, end-users cannot see the label.
The following statement will be included in the user manual of the vehicle, because it is not practical to indicate it on the device.

- This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:
- (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and
 - (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.