Subject: Supersede request for confidential letter and related documents

To Whom It May Concern,

We, Logitech, Inc., has requested the supersede for the confidential letter in order to put external photo, internal photo and test set up photo into the list of the short-term confidential documents under the marketing reason.

We also request to supersede the label location and label samples because they also reveal the part of the product photo.

At the same time, we have understood that the grant has been issued on October 7th, 2011 and the documents we requested to be put into short term confidential documents has been seen in front of public over 20 days.

Please kindly accept our request and supersede those documents.

Sincerely,
