

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT, Portable Computer with RFID function, is powered by an AC Adapter or the battery. The device is using low power RF transmission for proximity reading range. ASK modulation can be transmitted through Loop Antenna.

The other instruction, please have a look at the users manual.