Subject: FCC Part 22.901(d) Certification Application for Intermec Technologies Corporation 700 handheld computer.

This is to inform that Intermec Technologies Corporation is submitting a new filing for the 700 hand held computer for Part 22 Certification. The 700 has a Novatel radio modem integrated within to allow wireless data communication.

Novatel via M. Flom Associates has completed all required tests in compliance with Parts 2 and 22 of the FCC Rules. SAR testing and Effective Isotropic Radiated Power (EIRP) testing was completed by APREL Laboratories and with satisfactory results as provided in the attached Exhibits.

All required tests in compliance with Part 15 of the FCC Rules have been completed by Intermec Technologies with satisfactory results and kept on file for "Declaration of Conformity" requirements pursuant to Section 15.101(b) and (c)(1) of FCC rules.

Intermec Technologies Corporation would like to request confidentiality as indicated in the Form 731, Item 8 and as requested in the letter detailing those items to be kept confidential.

Please do hesitate to call at (319) 846-2415 or email at Dave.Fry@Intermec.com should you require additional information or have any questions.
