

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT (Remote Control) is powered by 3Vdc from batteries. The type of antenna is Monopole antenna. The output power of this device is very low. Under normal use condition, the transmitter and the receiver are quite close, so high EIRP power is neither necessary nor allowed because of interference.