How long does this limited hardware warranty last?

This limited hardware warranty lasts for the time period indicated on your packing slip, invoice, or receipt, except for the following Dell-branded hardware:

- As part of a standard portable configuration, batteries carry a base 1-year limited hardware warranty regardless of the length of the system warranty. In addition, for some products, a customer has the option of purchasing a battery that comes with a 3-year limited hardware warranty.
- The warranty for a print head that is included as original equipment in the Dell mobile printer is for parts only and is effective for a period of 1 year after the date of purchase of the printer or 1000 prints of printer usage, whichever occurs first.
- Your Series 5, 6, or 7 PERC controller battery may provide up to 72 hours of controller cache memory backup power when new. Under the 1-year limited hardware warranty, Dell warrants that the battery will provide at least 24 hours of backup coverage during the 1-year limited hardware warranty period.
- Your series 8 PERC controller battery comes with a 3 year limited hardware warranty which cannot be extended beyond 3 years.
- Projector lamps carry a 90-day limited hardware warranty.
- Dell-certified and Dell-branded memory purchased separately from a Dell system ("Dell-Certified Memory") carries a lifetime limited hardware warranty.
- The limited hardware warranty for monitors purchased independent of a system lasts for the time period indicated on your packing slip, invoice, receipt or other sales documentation. Monitors purchased with a system are covered by the system limited hardware warranty.
- The limited hardware warranty for a Dell external hard disk drive purchased simultaneously with a system lasts for the longer of (a) 2 years; or (b) the duration of the system's limited hardware warranty.
- PDAs, earphones, and remote inline controls carry a 1-year limited hardware warranty.
- Other add-on hardware carries the longer of either a 1-year limited hardware warranty for new parts and a 90-day limited hardware warranty for reconditioned parts or, for both new and reconditioned parts, the remainder of the warranty for the Dell product on which such parts are installed.
- SATA hard drives in PowerEdge, PowerEdge SC, and PowerVault systems launched on or after March 24, 2009 (e.g., PowerEdge T110, PowerEdge T310, PowerEdge T410, PowerEdge T610, PowerEdge T710, PowerEdge R210, PowerEdge R310, PowerEdge R410, PowerEdge R510, PowerEdge R610, PowerEdge R710, PowerEdge M610, PowerEdge M710 and PowerVault NX300) carry the lesser of either a 1-year limited hardware warranty or the length of the limited hardware warranty for the Dell system with which the SATA hard drive is shipped. Service offerings may be available to extend the SATA hard drive warranty period on these systems for an additional fee.

- All variants of the ioDrive NAND Flash devices carry the length of the limited hardware warranty, for the Dell system with which the ioDrive NAND Flash device is shipped. ioDrive NAND Flash devices are not eligible for purchase of extended warranty coverage beyond a total of 5 years of coverage from the original shipment date. The Extended Life Limited Hardware Warranty does not include configuration or other advanced service provided by Dell ProSupport. The Extended Life Limited Hardware Warranty is not transferrable.

Clarifications and limitations pertaining to products with Extended Life Limited Hardware Warranty:

- B-Series FCX / FCxs — Internal power supply and fans are covered; however, warranty excludes removable optics and LEDs.
- J-Series EX4200 — Warranty does not include optics and limits fan and power supply to 5 years from date of purchase.
- W-Series Access Points: W-AP92/93/93H, W-IAP92/93, W-AP104/105, W-IAP105, W-AP124/125, W-AP134/135, W-IAP134/135 — Warranty limits any power supply, antennae or accessories to 1 year from date of purchase.
- Enterprise Value, Read Intensive and Slim SSD Class Drives are not eligible for purchase of extended warranty coverage beyond 3 years.
- Dell PDU's, KMM's, and UPS's purchased independent of a system carry a 3-year limited hardware warranty. Dell PDU's, KMM's, and UPS's purchased with a system are covered by the greater of 3 years or the term of the system limited hardware warranty, with the exception of the UPS battery limited hardware warranty, which is limited to 3 years.
- All variants of PowerEdge Express Flash PCIe SSD SLC devices carry the length of the limited hardware warranty coverage for the Dell system with which the PowerEdge Express Flash PCIe SSD SLC device is shipped. PowerEdge Express Flash PCIe SSD SLC devices are not eligible for purchase of extended warranty coverage beyond a total of 5 years of coverage from the original shipment date. Additionally, PowerEdge Express Flash PCIe SSD devices use a silicon technology which has a maximum number of physical bytes which can be written to the device (the "Device Life"). The applicable limited hardware warranty covers failures due to defects in workmanship and/or materials, but does not cover problems related to the device reaching its maximum Device Life.

The limited hardware warranty on all Dell-branded products purchased directly from Dell begins on the date of the packing slip, invoice, receipt, or other sales documentation. For products purchased from third party retailers or resellers, the limited hardware warranty begins on the date of your original sales receipt. The warranty period is not extended if Dell repairs or replaces a warranted product or any parts. Dell may change the availability of limited hardware warranties, at its discretion, but any changes will not be retroactive.

What will Dell do?

Prior to contacting Dell, please consult your Owner's Manual on support.dell.com for troubleshooting advice and directions on running hardware diagnostics.

Upon contacting Dell technical support, you will be required to engage in a remote diagnosis session with the technical support agent to help determine the cause of your issue. Remote diagnosis may involve customer access to the inside of the product and multiple or extended sessions. If the Dell technical support agent determines that your issue is the result of a defect in materials or workmanship but the issue is not able to be resolved remotely, Dell, at its sole discretion, may dispatch a replacement part to you, arrange for you to send your product or defective part back to Dell's repair depot, or replace part of the product with a comparable part of product that may be new or refurbished. If the Dell limited hardware warranty for your product includes in-home warranty service, then Dell may also elect to dispatch a service technician to your location to perform the repair or replacement (see Important Information about In-Home Warranty Service After Remote Diagnosis below).

If Dell determines that the problem is not covered under this limited hardware warranty, Dell may be able to offer you service alternatives on a fee basis.

Dell uses new and refurbished parts made by various manufacturers in performing warranty repairs and in building replacement parts and products. Refurbished parts and products are parts or products that have been returned to Dell, some of which were never used by a customer. All parts and products are inspected and tested for quality. Replacement parts and products are covered for the remaining period of the limited hardware warranty for the product you purchased. Dell owns all parts removed from repaired products and, in most instances, you will be required to return defective parts to Dell.

Dell may use authorized representatives to provide any of the technical support or repair services under this limited hardware warranty.

Important Information about Returning Products to Dell for Repair or Replacement:

For mail-in warranty service (shipping included): Upon a determination by a Dell technical support agent that your product should be returned to Dell for repair or replacement, packing, shipping instructions, and a pre-paid shipping waybill will be sent to you. Upon receipt of the shipping supplies, you must package the product in the material required and call the carrier designated on your shipping instructions to arrange a pick up time. As long as you follow our shipping instructions, Dell will pay standard shipping charges for shipping the product in for repair and for shipping it back to you if you use an address in the United States (excluding Puerto Rico and the U.S. possession and territories) or in Canada (in respect of systems registered in Canada). Otherwise, Dell will ship the product to you freight collect. If your warranty does not include mail-in warranty service (shipping included), then Dell will issue a Return Material Authorization Number which you must include with your return.

You must return the products to us in their original or equivalent packaging, prepay shipping charges, and insure the shipment or accept the risk if the product is lost or damaged in shipment. Dell will return the repaired or replacement products to you. Dell will pay to ship the repaired or replaced products to you if you use an address in the United States (excluding Puerto Rico and U.S. possessions and territories) or in Canada (in respect of systems registered in Canada). Otherwise, Dell will ship the product to you freight collect. When you contact us regarding certain products, such as smartphones or tablet products, Dell may offer to ship you a replacement product prior to receiving your original product back. In such instance, Dell may require a valid credit card number at the time you request a replacement product. Dell will not charge or invoice you for the replacement product as long as you return the original product to us within 10 days of your receipt of the replacement product and Dell confirms that your product issue is covered under this limited hardware warranty. If Dell does not receive your original product within 10 days, Dell will charge to your credit card or invoice you for the then-current standard price for the product. If upon receipt of your original product, Dell determines that your product issue is not covered under this limited hardware warranty, you will be given the opportunity to return the replacement unit, at your sole expense, within ten (10) days from the date Dell contacts you regarding the lack of coverage for your issue or Dell will charge to your credit card or invoice you the then current standard price for the product. In addition, if you fail to pay Dell the amounts due in connection with such an invoice, Dell may suspend your limited hardware warranty support until the invoice amount is paid. A suspension of your limited hardware warranty for failure to properly return a product or to pay an invoice will not toll the term of your limited hardware warranty, and the limited hardware warranty will still expire in accordance with its original term.

 NOTE: Before you ship the product(s) to us, make sure to back up the data on the hard drive(s) and any other storage device(s) in the product(s). You are responsible for removing any confidential, proprietary, or personal information and removable media such as SIM cards, floppy disks, DVDs/CDs, or PC Cards regardless of whether a technician is also providing in-home or on-site assistance. Dell is not responsible for any of your confidential, proprietary, or personal information; lost or corrupted data; data or voice charges incurred as a result of failing to remove all SIM cards; or damaged or lost removable media. Please only include the product components requested by the phone technician.

Important Information about Part Dispatches by Dell:

For some issues, Dell may dispatch a new or refurbished part for you to replace a defective part, if Dell agrees that the defective part needs to be replaced. You must return the defective part to Dell. When you contact us, Dell may offer to ship you a replacement part prior to receiving your original part back. In such instance, Dell may require a valid credit card number at the time you request a replacement part. Dell will not charge or invoice you for the replacement part as long as you return the original part to us within 10 days of your receipt of the replacement part. Failure to timely return the defective part to Dell in accordance with the written instructions provided with the replacement part may result in the suspension of your limited hardware warranty support or a charge to your credit card or invoice in the amount of the then-current standard Dell price for that part. A suspension of your limited hardware warranty for failure to properly return a part will not toll the term of your limited hardware warranty, and the limited hardware warranty will still expire in accordance with its original term.

Dell will pay to ship the part to you if you use an address in the United States, (excluding Puerto Rico and U.S. possessions and territories) or in Canada (in respect of systems registered in Canada). Otherwise, Dell will ship the part freight collect. Dell will also include a prepaid shipping container with each replacement part for your use in returning the replaced part to us.

 NOTE: Before you replace parts, make sure to back up the data on the hard drive(s) and any other storage device(s) in the product(s). You are responsible for removing any confidential, proprietary, or personal information and removable media such as SIM cards, floppy disks, DVDs/CDs, or PC Cards regardless of whether a technician is also providing in-home or on-site assistance. Dell is not responsible for any of your confidential, proprietary, or personal information; lost or corrupted data; data or voice charges incurred as a result of failing to remove all SIM cards; or damaged or lost removable media. When returning parts to Dell, please only include the product components requested by the phone technician.

Important Information about In-Home Service after Remote Diagnosis:

If the Dell limited hardware warranty for your product includes in-home warranty service, then if Dell determines that your issue is covered under this limited hardware warranty and the technician cannot correct your problem over the phone or, if applicable, by dispatching a part or replacement product to you, then Dell may dispatch a service technician to your location within the United States (including Puerto Rico, but excluding the other U.S. possessions and territories) or in Canada (in respect of systems registered in Canada). Please tell the technician the full address of your system's location. Both the performance of service and service response times depend upon the time of day your call is received by Dell, the service alternative you purchased, parts availability, geographical restrictions, weather conditions and the terms of this limited hardware warranty. An adult must be present at all times during the service technician's visit. You must grant the service technician full access to the system and (at no cost to Dell) have working space, electricity, and a local telephone line. If these requirements are lacking, Dell is not obligated to provide service. In addition, Dell is not obligated to provide service if you fail to provide an environment that is conductive to computer repair, including for example if you insist on service to be provided at varying locations, if you fail to properly restrain a pet, if you threaten our technician either verbally or physically, if your location or the general area where the system is located is dangerous, infested with insects, rodents, pests, biohazards, human or animal excrement and/or chemicals as reasonably determined to be unsafe by our technician. If you or your authorized representative is not at the location when the service technician arrives, the service technician will not be able to service your system and you may be charged an additional amount for a follow-up service call. If the telephone technician determines that your system needs a replacement part, you authorize the on-site technician to act as your service agent to handle the delivery and return of the warranty parts necessary to render on-site repairs. You may incur a charge if you fail to allow the on-site technician to return non-working/ unused units/warranty parts to Dell.

Safety and Regulatory Information

You can find additional Safety Best Practices and information on REACH, Electromagnetic Compatibility (EMC), Ergonomics, Transportation, and Tuners on the Regulatory Compliance page, www.dell.com/regulatory_compliance.

WARNING: Use of controls, adjustments, procedures, connections, or signal types other than those specified in your documentation may result in exposure to shock, electrical hazards, and/or mechanical hazards.

CAUTION: Dell products are not certified as medical electrical equipment, and are not intended for use in close proximity to patients or in oxygen rich environments.

- Dell products are not designed for use in hazardous environments.
- Dell products are not designed or intended for use in operating or calibrating medical devices.

When setting up the equipment for use:

- Place the equipment on a hard, level surface.
- Do not stack the equipment, place it in an enclosed space, or otherwise install it where it is subject to heated air. The equipment should have least 10.2 cm (4 inches) of clearance on all vented sides to permit the airflow required for proper ventilation. Restricting airflow can damage the equipment or cause overheating.
- If your product contains a tuner, see www.dell.com/regulatory_compliance for safety instructions for tuners.
- If your device includes a modem, the cable used with the modem should be manufactured with a minimum wire size of 26 American Wire Gauge (AWG) and an FCC compliant RJ11 modular plug.

WARNING: Do not operate your equipment with any cover(s) (including computer covers, bezels, filler brackets, front-panel inserts, and so on) removed.

- Do not use your equipment in a wet environment. Protect equipment from liquid intrusion.
- Do not use damaged equipment, including exposed, frayed, or damaged power cords.
- Do not push any objects into the air vents or openings of your equipment. Doing so can cause fire or electric shock by shorting out interior components.
- Do not allow your portable computer or adapter to operate with the base resting directly on exposed skin for extended periods of time. The surface temperature of the base will rise during normal operation, particularly when AC power is present. Allowing sustained contact with exposed skin can cause discomfort or burn.
- To remove a portable computer from all power sources, turn the computer off, disconnect the AC adapter from the electrical outlet, and remove any battery installed in the battery bay or module bay.

When Working Inside Your Device

WARNING: Hazardous moving parts. Keep away from the moving fan blades.

- Do not attempt to service the equipment yourself, except as explained in your Dell documentation or in instructions otherwise provided to you by Dell. Always follow installation and service instructions closely.
- Internal components may become very warm during normal operation. Before touching any internal components, allow time for them to cool.
- Disconnect all cables from the portable computer including the phone cable before opening the memory/modem access door.
- Check the voltage rating before you connect the equipment to an electrical outlet to ensure that the required voltage and frequency match the available power source.
 - If your device has a manual voltage-selection switch, your voltage-selection switch on the back panel must be manually set to operate at the correct operating voltage used in your location.
- To prevent electric shock, plug the equipment power cables into properly grounded electrical outlets. If the equipment is provided with a 3-prong power cable, do not use adapter plugs that bypass the grounding feature and do not remove the grounding feature from the plug or adapter.

Adapter Safety

- Use only the Dell-provided AC adapter approved for use with this device. Use of another AC adapter may cause a fire or explosion.
- The AC adapter may become hot during normal operation of your computer. Ensure adequate ventilation and use care when handling the adapter during or immediately after operation. Do not use an auto adapter DC power cable connected via either an automobile cigarette lighter adapter or an empower-type connector in vehicles with high voltage (24 VDC), such as commercial transport vehicles.

Battery Safety

WARNING: Using an incompatible battery may increase the risk of fire or explosion. Replace the battery only with a compatible battery purchased from Dell that is designed to work with your Dell computer. Do not use a battery from other computers with your computer.

A damaged battery may pose a risk of personal injury. Damage may include impact or shock that dents or punctures the battery, exposure to a flame, or other deformation. Do not disassemble the battery. Handle a damaged or leaking battery pack with extreme care. If the battery is damaged, electrolyte may leak from the cells or fire may result which may cause personal injury.

Do not expose (store or place) your computer or battery pack to a heat source such as a radiator, fireplace, stove, electric heater, or other heat-generating appliance or otherwise expose it to temperatures in excess of 65 °C (149 °F). When heated to excessive temperatures, battery cells could vent or explode, posing risk of fire.

ENERGY STAR Compliance

The Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) ENERGY STAR program is a joint effort between the EPA and manufacturers to reduce air pollution by promoting energy-efficient products. You can help reduce electricity usage and its side effects by leaving the power-management features enabled and by turning off your product when it is not in use for extended periods of time.

ENERGY STAR Label

Any Dell product bearing the ENERGY STAR emblem electronically or physically on the product is certified to comply with the EPA ENERGY STAR requirements as configured when shipped by Dell.

ENERGY STAR power-management features save energy by allowing computers to enter a very low power (sleep) mode when not in use for a specified period of time. These power-management features are activated on all ENERGY STAR qualified computers.

The power-management features are preset to allow the computer and monitor to power down (sleep) after the following periods of inactivity:

Product Type	Operating System	Monitor	Computer
Desktops, All-In-Ones, Thin Clients, Workstations, Mobile Workstations, and Notebooks	Windows XP, Windows Vista, Windows 7, and Windows 8	10 minutes	15 minutes (except for certain thin client systems)
	Ubuntu	10 minutes	30 minutes for Ubuntu

The computer and monitor can be woken from the sleep state through user interaction with the keyboard or mouse.

Wake on LAN (WOL)

Computers configured with WOL can also be woken from the sleep state by a network signal. Wake-up from sleep state is unaffected by the BIOS setting and must be enabled or disabled in the operating system. WOL works only when the computer is connected to an AC power supply and may differ based on chassis or platform.

The speed of any active 1 Gb/s Ethernet network link is reduced when transitioning to sleep or off state.

Wake Management

Computers with Ethernet capability that are shipped through enterprise channels (sales channels typically used by large and medium-sized business, government, educational, or other organizations to purchase computers for use in managed client or server environments) are capable of both remote (via network) and scheduled (via real-time clock) wake events from sleep state.

For additional power-management specific information, see www.energystar.gov/powermanagement.

For additional information on the ENERGY STAR program, see www.energystar.gov.

Recycling Information

Dell recommends that customers dispose of their used computer hardware, monitors, printers, and other peripherals in an environmentally-sound manner. Potential methods include reuse of parts or whole products and recycling of products, components, and/or materials.

For specific information on Dell's worldwide recycling programs, see www.dell.com/recyclingworldwide.

Perchlorate Material

This product's coin-cell battery may contain perchlorate and may require special handling when recycled or disposed of. For more information, see www.dtsc.ca.gov/hazardouswaste/perchlorate.

Location of Radio Regulatory Labels

For some portable computers, the radio regulatory labels may be found either in the battery compartment, or under the bottom access panel.

Display Lamp Disposal

 LAMPS INSIDE THIS PRODUCT CONTAIN MERCURY (Hg) AND MUST BE RECYCLED OR DISPOSED OF ACCORDING TO LOCAL, STATE, OR FEDERAL LAWS. FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT THE ELECTRONIC INDUSTRIES ALLIANCE AT WWW.EIAE.ORG. FOR LAMP SPECIFIC DISPOSAL INFORMATION CHECK WWW.LAMPRECYCLE.ORG.
