INFORMATION FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION (FCC)

This receiver complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules.

This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Responsible Party: DIRECTV®, Inc.

- Trade name: DIRECTV
- Type of Equipment: DIRECTV® Satellite Receiver
- Model Number: LC61 & LH44

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits of a Class B digital device, pursuant to part 15 of the FCC rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation.

This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation.

If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

If you have problems with the receiver, contact DIRECTV Customer Service.

CAUTION: Changes or modifications not expressly approved by the manufacturer responsible for compliance could void the user's right to operate this equipment.

FCC RF Radiation Exposure Statement MPE/SAR/RF Exposure Information.

This equipment complies with FCC RF radiation exposure limits set forth for an uncontrolled environment. This equipment was verified for RF exposure and found to comply with Council Recommendation 1999/519/EC and FCC OET-65 RF exposure requirements.

WARNING: While this equipment is in operation, a separation distance of at least 20 centimeters (equal to 8 inches) must be maintained between the antenna inside the equipment and the bodies of all persons exposed to the antenna in order to meet the FCC RF exposure guidelines. Making changes to the antenna or the equipment is not permitted. Doing so may result in the equipment exceeding the FCC RF exposure guidelines. This equipment must not be co-located or operated in conjunction with any other antenna or radio transmitter.

CARE FOR YOUR DIRECTV HD/ HD DVR

Your DIRECTV HD/ HD DVR receiver has been designed to meet the highest standards of quality and security. It is important that you observe the following precautions to ensure safe use of the equipment. Do not disassemble the receiver.

CAUTION! SHOCK HAZARD

Shows that there is a dangerous voltage within the receiver and you could receive an electric shock if you manipulate it.

WARNING

To reduce the risk of fire or electric shock, you must not expose the receiver to rain or moisture, nor to dripping or splashing. You should not place objects filled with liquids, such as vases or cups on the receiver.

IMPORTANT SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS

1. Read these instructions.
2. Keep these instructions.
3. Heed all warnings.
4. Follow all instructions.
5. Do not use this receiver near water.
6. Clean only with dry cloth.
7. Do not block any ventilation openings. Install in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.
8. Do not install near any heat sources such as radiators, heat registers, stoves, or other devices (including amplifiers) that produce heat.
9. Protect the power cord and plugs.
10. Protect the power cord from being walked on or pinched, particularly plugs, convenience receptacles, and the point where they exit from the receiver.
11. Unplug this receiver during lightning storms or when unused for long periods of time.
12. Use only with the cart, stand, tripod, bracket, or table specified by the manufacturer, or sold with the receiver. When a cart is used, use caution when moving the cart/receiver combination to avoid injury from tip-over.
13. Warning: Use only the power supply that came with your unit.
14. If the power supply needs to be replaced, please contact DIRECTV Customer Service for an authorized replacement.
15. Do not try to change the security design of the polarized or grounding type plug. A polarized plug has one wider than the other leg. A polarized plug has two blades and a rounded tip. The wide blade and rounded tip were placed for safety. If the plug supplied with the equipment does not fit the outlet, contact an electrician to replace the obsolete outlet.

SAFETY AND CARE

- Do not remove the cover (or back) of the receiver. If you remove the cover you expose yourself to dangerous voltages. The unit may cause electric shocks or short circuits when switched on if incorrectly assembled.
- Refer all servicing to qualified service personnel. Moreover, if you open the receiver you void the warranty and your right to use the decoder.
- If you use the receiver with 220 AC power you must use a suitable connector. To reduce the risk of fire, use a telecommunications line cord AWG No. 26 or higher.
- Ensure proper ventilation – the vent slots on the DIRECTV Receiver must be left uncovered to allow proper airflow to the unit. Blocking the airflow to the unit could impair performance or damage your receiver and other components.
- Do not stack electronic components or other objects on the DIRECTV HD/ HD DVR receiver. Also, do not place the receiver on a "hot component" such as an audio power amplifier.
- Always place the receiver on a flat, firm surface. Do not operate on a rug or other padded surface.
- Avoid audio hum or interference by inserting the cable plugs firmly into their jacks. Once connected, place the Audio/Video (A/V) cables on the sides of the TV back panel, rather than down the middle. Do not coil the twin-lead wires. Keep them as far from A/V Cables as possible.
- Never insert any objects into the openings of the DIRECTV HD/ HD DVR receiver, except for the DIRECTV Access Card that goes in the front slot.
- Using NOT authorized electrical cables can cause electric shocks, fire, injury and / or property damage.

IMPORTANT: Do NOT place your DIRECTV HD receiver near anything WET or HOT. By doing so you will reduce the risk of fire or electric shocks. The receiver should NOT be used near a bathtub, pool or damp basement. Also, never spill liquid on the receiver, and do not place containers containing liquids on top of it.

 DO NOT OPEN!
Never attempt to disassemble the DIRECTV receiver yourself. Always contact DIRECTV Customer Service when repair is required.

INSTALLATION

The adapter installation must be performed by a qualified technician in accordance with local regulations.

Note for those who do the installation

This note is intended to remind the technician of satellite television system what is stipulated in the section 810 of the U.S. National Electrical Code (NEC), which established guidelines for proper connection of ground equipment, and in particular it specifies that the ground cable shall be connected as close to the entry point cable as practical.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR USE OF SOFTWARE

The DIRECTV receiver incorporates software which is owned by DIRECTV, Inc. or other third party licensors.

Read these terms before using the receiver. If you do not agree with these terms, you shall not use the receiver and you must return it immediately to DIRECTV or to your supplier. Remember that these terms can be modified, updated or have additions, in order to give you the best service.

A. License and Terms

DIRECTV grants a limited, nonexclusive, nontransferable license to use the Software only in executable code format as long as it is integrated with the receiver. It is important to enforce and not modify, nor remove copyright, trademark and other protective notices contained in the Software. The Software is protected by copyright laws and other laws, regulations and other intellectual property agreements.

All intellectual property rights in the Software and for the Software itself, and all modifications, updates, enhancements and derivative works of the Software are exclusively owned by DIRECTV or licensors. Third party software used in connection with the receiver may be directly available from providers and use of such Software is also subject to these terms.

DIRECTV may change, supplement, update or alter the Software via software downloads or other procedures, and these terms shall apply to such modified, supplemented, updated or altered Software.

B. License Restrictions

Remember it is not permitted to copy, modify or transfer the Software, neither total nor partial copy.

It is not allowed to reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile or translate the Software, or otherwise attempt to derive the source code of the Software.

Remember that you are not allowed to rent, lease, load, resell for profit or distribute the Software, or any part thereof. Neither can you export, transfer or re-export the Software.

C. Ownership of Software and Reservation of Rights

The Software is licensed, not by way of sale. It is for your personal use only under the terms and provisions of this license agreement. It is important to know that DIRECTV is NOT transferring the title or any other rights of ownership of the Software or the receiver and that DIRECTV and its suppliers have the right to grant or not grant the service.

D. Cancellation

These Terms are effective until they are canceled. You can cancel by returning the receiver to DIRECTV or to your supplier. The terms can be automatically terminated without notice if you do not meet the terms or agreements made with DIRECTV. If the agreement is canceled you must return the receiver to DIRECTV or to your provider.

E. Exclusion of Liability

The software is supplied (to the scope permitted by law) "as is". Neither DIRECTV nor its third party licensors show a warranty or representations with respect to the software, including without limitation all kinds of warranties, express or implied, or any kind of implied warranties of merchantability, satisfactory quality, fitness for a particular purpose, title or non-infringement of third party rights.

Note that DIRECTV or its licensors are not liable for any direct, indirect, consequential, special, punitive or incident (including lost profits, lost savings, loss of information or cost of providing goods, technology or substitute services) resulting from the use or inability to use the software, even if DIRECTV or its licensors had been warned of the likelihood of such damages, or for any claim by third party. The use of DIRECTV receiver and service implies you acknowledge having read, agreed and complied with these terms.
