

Digital Security coding system

The handset unit and base unit of 21008B will registration on both 27bit digital random generated security code with manufacturer ID code. This is fulfilling the FCC Part 15.214(d) requirement that there must be at least 256 discrete digital codes.