DIGITAL SECURITY CODING SYSTEM

The handset and base unit of 25838 A will exchange a random generated 16 bits digital security code, when every time the handset put on the charging cradle of base unit. This is to fulfill FCC Part 15.214(d) requirement regarding there must be at least 256 possible discrete digital codes.

 End ***