RE: Psion Teklogix Inc

FCC ID: GM37525CMCS

These comments refer to the Part 24 portion of this filing.

I have a few comments on this Application. Depending on your responses, kindly understand there may be additional comments.

- 1.) This device contains a USB port which appears capable of connection to a computer. Was this device tested as a computer peripheral?
- 2.) The label sample does not match the label location shown in the photograph. Which label is correct?
- 3.) Please identify all accessories provided by the manufacturer for use with this device. Typical accessories that may be of interest might include earphones, belt clips, lanyards, light pens, etc.
- 4.) This device contains frequency bands that are not authorized in this device. Please review this filing.
- 5.) Please be certain of your radiated power measurements. The device according to your report is feeding an antenna with approximately 1W of power, but only radiating about ½ W.
