

Psion Teklogix Inc.

2100 Meadowvale Blvd., Mississauga, Ontario, L5N 7J9, Canada

Date: March 29, 2007

To whom it may concern, STATEMENT

We, Psion Teklogix Inc., state that our device: FCC ID: GM375273RADA has no space for the label except in the battery compartment, as shown in the attached photographs. The FCC label will be stuck inside the battery compartment so it is visible to the end user when they purchase the product, prior to installing the battery. The battery will be installed by the end user. The User Manual will also direct the end user where they can find the FCC label. The battery cover will open easily without using any special tools
