

Tuneup Procedure

- Each modem is tested during routine factory testing;
- The modems are tested to GSM standards using an Agilent 8960 GSM test set.
- Multiple channels and power levels are tested and if correction is necessary.
- If correction is necessary, the "Automatic Power Control" software tables are adjusted in the modem's Flash memory.
- After passing all tests, the modem is labeled and assigned an IME