Note 1: X1 is a part of the Microcontroller PIC16C711.

Note 2: The microprocessor outputs data and inputs data according to the arrows. The microwave sensor transmits 2.45 GHz to the air then when it receives it back when it bounces from a moving body. It translates it into data and forwards it to the microprocessor.