

Product Operation Description

This product is a wireless microphone, which has one switching key, which is function for power on / off, the product equipped one indicator by the side of the switching keys, it would light when the power switching key were on, then light will turn off within 0.1 second. When the batteries are out of energy, the light will turn on in red.

The product uses two pcs “AA” batteries, the operating frequency band is 740 MHz to 769 MHz.

The main function:

The microphone transfers audio signal to electric signal via audio transducer, the input electric signal were dealt with frequency modulated, amplified and transmit through integral antenna. Then receiver will receive the radio signal at the same operating channel.