

Inovonics – Request for Confidentiality

Attention: FCC Application Examiner May 5, 2017
Subject: Request for Confidentiality
Applicant: Inovonics Wireless Corporation
Model No: EN1252
FCC ID: HCQ3B0T9HPX

To Whom It May Concern;

Request is hereby submitted by Inovonics Wireless Corporation to withhold permanently from public view certain portions of this application for equipment certification. This request for confidentiality is made pursuant to the Canadian Access to Information Act. In particular, the following sections of the application are to be kept permanently confidential:

- Schematics
- Block Diagram
- Operational Description / Functional Description
- Parts List

Rationale for Request for Confidentiality

Inovonics Wireless Corporation has invested considerable time and materials in research and development to produce the referenced product. Disclosure of the confidential portions of this application to competitors would not only give them significant competitive advantage in development of similar products, but would also disclose successful implementation of unpublished, leading edge technology, which has been developed by Inovonics.

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

Corey Leavitt
