

9. Marking location and layout

* Schematic drawing of a module part

Note:

Marking layout, size and other indications may be changed. The marking is on the module cover in the outer case and is accessible without any special tools.

The product is too small to place the label requirements. FCC compliance statement will be included in the user manual, as it is not practical to place on the device according to FCC Rules § 15.19.