Hi Mike,

Here are our responses to your questions:

Question #1: In the request for confidentiality letter, operational description is listed. However, the information contains in the operational description are those information in the user manual. Please either remove the user manual information from the operational description or remove operational description file from the request for confidentiality letter.

Our Response #1: The confidentiality request for operational description is withdrawn (refer to the revised letter as attached.)

Question #2: Please provide 20dB Bandwidth test data per section 15.247 (a) (1) requirement.

Our Response #2: Please refer to Section 7.4 (Page 20 & 21), on which you might find the 20dB Bandwidth data.

Please try to give the grant ASAP if there is no further question. Thank you for your efforts.

Best Rgds,
WK
