Date: 15 September 2023

Ref: Cover letter (C2PC)

FCC ID: IPH-03911

To whom it may concern:

Changes to IPH-03911 include passive component value changes to improve the manufacturing process, component substitution to reduce cost, and enclosure changes to reduce cost. Minor PCB layout changes accompany a few of the component substitutions. Moreover, these hardware changes do not affect the SAR and/or RF field strength limits previously calculated.

The output power characteristics of the final product are unchanged.

Sincerely,
