Declaration of Identity

We, the manufacturer, declare under our sole responsibility, that the product:

Description of object	RFID Reader
Model name/-number	KPM5/3
Brand name	proxEntry
Type name (if available)

Is comparable to:

- PRM5/3

We declare that the products indicated here are comparable regarding function, features, performance, size, appearance, power consumption, connectors and electromagnetic compatibility.

The differences are:

- Naming of model name
- Compared to the PRM5/3 the KPM5/3 has one additional component: A Membrane keyboard is glued on the front of the plastic housing. This keyboard has no active or passive electronic components.

All models are applying 100% same components (aside from the keyboard) and providing the same feature and functions (aside from the keyboard).
