Question #1: Please provide additional internal photos by removing the metal plate.

For your information : MPE test report is not applicable for the device to be used in portable configuration. MPE test report will not be submitted to FCC for review.

For your information : Three host evaluation is only required for portable device with 1)conducted or EIRP greater than 100mW or 2) the device subject to routine evaluation per section 2.1093 of FCC rules.

If three host evaluation is required, three host evaluation shall only be addressed during SAR evaluation. Per the confirmation from the Commission, three host evaluation is not required for radiated or RF conducted tests.

Best Regards

Mike Kuo
