To whom it may concern:

Subject: Label Location Info

The Product Identification (FCC ID) is not placed on the exterior of this device – but permanently affixed on the main structure (non-removable part) inside this handheld transmitter and clearly visible when the battery is inserted or changed. This user accessible area does not require any special tools for access.

This information will be also inside of the user manual of the car.

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

B. Sc. Uwe DOLLITZ
