RE: ATCB005809

FCC ID: J75503B for Sunrex Technology Corporation

I have a few comments on this Application. Depending on your responses, kindly understand there may be additional comments.

1. This is my third request to have you remove the Declaration of Conformity (DoC) logo from the FCC ID label. Why are you not responsive to this request?

(a) The logo for Declaration of Conformity (DoC) must be removed from the FCC ID label for the keyboard. The keyboard is not considered a Personal Computer (PC) peripheral since it does not connect to a PC computer by wires. Unless you can provide me with another reason for having the DoC logo on the keyboard, please remove the DoC logo from the keyboard. The logo that must be removed from the FCC ID label is pictured below:

2. Please remove the following sentence from FCC RF Radiation Exposure Statement in the user manual because it is not needed and may cause unnecessary concern.
"This equipment should be installed and operated with a minimum distance of 20 cm between the radiator and your body."
