Dear Mr. Johnson,
Please find below the answers to your questions.

- 1) The label is placed on Ideal box rear panel (or controller box – please refer to Operational description page 2 and external photograph No.3). We confirm that "Ideal box" (controller) is the main control unit.
- 2) The Tx antenna internal photo was uploaded on August 2, 2004 via Internal photographs folder.
- 3) This test report was sent for your information to demonstrate, that the digital portion was tested.

Many thanks for your attention and help.

Sincerely,

Marina Cherniavsky,
certification engineer
