Declaration Letter for Low Power Indoor Client Devices (6XD)

We, Logitech Far East Ltd., attest that this device under FCC ID:JNZVR0032 complies with device protocol requirements and operational restrictions for Indoor Client Devices (6XD).

- a) This device will only associate and connect with a low-power indoor access point or subordinate device and never directly connects to other client devices.
- b) This device will always initiate transmission under the control of a low power indoor AP or subordinate except for brief transmissions before joining a network. These short messages will only occur if this client has detected an indoor AP or subordinate operating on a channel. These brief messages will have a time-out mechanism such that if it does not receive a response from an AP it will not continually repeat the request.
- c) All transmissions will be lower or equal to the power advertised by the indoor low-power access point or subordinate and never above the maximum output power allowed by the FCC grant for equipment class 6XD.
- d) This device employs a Contention-Based Protocol as demonstrated in the test report.
- e) We understand and acknowledge that this device is subject to the following restrictions, which are also documented within the user manual:
 - Device is limited to indoor use. This client device may connect to the internet via a wired connection (ethernet) but does not source the internet to other clients or subordinate devices or provide any direct peer to peer connections to other clients / subordinates.
 - This device is prohibited for control of or communications with unmanned aircraft systems, including drones.

If you should have any questions regarding this declaration, please do not hesitate to contact us, thank you!

Sincerely yours,

Paul Zahra
