Subject :Request for Class II Permissive Change
FCC ID : JOYIUU19AC
Original gant date: January 6, 2009
Applicant :Kyocera Corporation

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to request a Class II permissive change for FCC ID: JOYIUU19AC, originally granted on January 6, 2009.

We changed power amplifier because original power amplifier had been discontinued. The original and alternative power amplifier has same radio specification. There are no change for pin replacement and circuit pattern from original.

The product specification is completely same, and it still complies with the Part 24 and OET 65 of FCC rules

The details of two power amplifiers as follows;

- Original power amplifier

Manufacture name: ANADIGICS

Model name: AND0026 (selection of AWT6131)

- Alternative power amplifier

Manufacture name: ANADIGICS

Model name: AWT6278

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours,

小山 克也
