

Question #6

This radio is intended for point-to-point application. The commissions allows for this spectrum (24 GHz) to be used for point-to-point use within the DEMS bands. Therefore, the application is neither a Node nor a Subscriber as normally referred by point-to-multipoint applications.