RE: FCC ID: K9L1001TE
Attention: Brian Haghtalab

I have a few comments on this Application.

1. The manual contains none of the required FCC statements. Please provide a manual with the appropriate no modification statement (15.21).
2. The information does not specify if this is a digital device. If this is a digital device please provide a manual with the appropriate 15.105 statements. If this is not a digital device, please provide a statement to that affect.
3. Please provide an operational description for this device.
