Re: Applicant: General Dynamics Itronix, Corporation
FCC ID: KBCIX-512AN

- 1) Class 2 Permissive Change to the Limited Single Modular Certification for FCC ID: KBCIX-512AN to add the new portable host Model: GD2000. This WLAN, INTEL Model: 512AN_MMW, 802.11 (a, b, g, n,) is embedded within the portable host Model: GD2000.

Gentlemen,

On behalf of General Dynamics Itronix, Corporation we request a Class 2 Permissive Change to the Limited Modular Certification for the KBCIX-512AN, WLAN. This change will cover its operation under rule Parts 15C and 15E when embedded within the new portable host Model: GD2000, a Rugged Ultra Mobile PC and its embedded internal antenna's.

The required portable RF exposure evaluation for the KBCIX-512AN embedded in the GD2000 host, includes SAR measurement data to support this permissive change request to specifically add the GD2000 host.

Thank you for your review and consideration of this application. Please let me know if you require any further information.

Best Regards,
