Overview

This application is for a change of ID to an existing, licensed radio. The radio is currently approved under FCC ID: N7NMC8355 and was granted on August 24, 2010 to Sierra Wireless. Sierra Wireless has granted authorization to General Dynamics Itronix for the ID change. The new FCC ID is KBCIX-MC8355. The product remains electrically and mechanically identical to the original filing. Antennas used with the device will comply with the original grant notes.

Recommendation

All items have been resolved and completed to my satisfaction; therefore I recommend this application for approval.
