

Tune Up Procedure

Each unit is tested for functionality during production against pass/fail criteria. Production units demonstrating compliance with criteria proceed in production; non-compliant units are removed from production. No tuning options are available to end user.