

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules .Operation is subject to the following two conditions:(1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and(2)this device must accept any interference received ,including interference that may cause undesired operation.

