

The Delphi VP1 head unit is a Chrysler Infotainment system deployed in Chrysler vehicles. The device employs a color touch screen display providing access to available navigation, entertainment and other features with ease. In addition to broadcast receivers and controls for other vehicle features, Bluetooth is included for pairing with compatible smart phones.